This is a good appointment as Mr. Clawson is one of those thoroughgoing enterprising men who, in connection with our "chief Churchill," will make ours one of the finest and best organized Fire Departments in the State.

RETURNED.—Jordan Stone, Esq., Managing Editor of the NEWS, returned on Saturday from the Editorial Excursion North.

His letters concluding his trip will be continued through the next few issues. The following extract from a letter received from him yesterday evening, but which we could not publish this morning for want of space, will be found of peculiar interest at this moment:

"While the discussion of politics, except socially, has not been indulged in by us during our tour, yet we have learned enough to know that at Baltimore, and that the States of New York and Pennsylvania will give him large majorities in November."

THE WARRENTON GAZETTE.—This paper, the publication of which has been suspended since the commencement of the DAILY NEWS, will resume publication at an early day.

Henry A. Foote, Esq., a young gentleman of fine literary attainments and in every particular highly competent for the task, is its editor and proprietor. We would be pleased to extend a cordial greeting to this old favorite.

VOL. I. RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY MORNING, JULY 8, 1872. NO. 110.

RADICAL POW-WOW, NO. 9.

BILLY SMITH ORATES.

COUNTY NOMINATIONS.

The Conservatives Jubilant over the Prospects.

The Convention met at 11 o'clock in Metropolitan Hall.

Tim Lee, as Chairman of the County Executive meeting, called the Convention to order, at the same time spouting one of his characteristic speeches. He knew there were differences existing in the ranks, that some preferred one and some another; he was in the interests of the whole party. He sincerely hoped no discordant feeling would disturb the harmony of the Convention, and that when the ticket was nominated three rousing cheers would be sent up for its success. As a candidate himself, before the Convention, he preferred not to appoint a chairman, and would state that nominations for that position were in order.

Jeems Harriss nominated J. C. L. Harriss.

Davis came to the front, said he was sick and "couldn't come," and Harriss was elected by acclamation.

Dr. Ellis, H. C. Jones, col., and Jno. B. Neathery were put in nomination for Secretary, all of which begged to be excused, but a secretary they must have, and Dr. Ellis was "pressed" into service.

Rufus Davis, so black that he clouded the stage, when appeared was chosen Assistant Secretary.

The roll of townships was called and a representative was found from each, either in person or by proxy.

A discussion arose in regard to the representation of Rolesville, which claimed its representation as an incorporated town in addition to its township delegates. This being a point of considerable importance, the hinge on which hung the difficulty between the Jones and Lee faction, much interest was manifested in the discussion.

The Chair decided that the Rolesville delegation could come in, from which decision a delegate from New Light, appealed.

The decision of the Chair was overruled, and the Rolesville delegation was ruled out.

Tim Lee moved that the Rolesville delegation be admitted to seats on the floor.

Maj. Jones amended by giving all good Republicans full privileges of the Convention.

Jeemes Harris opposed the motion. Said it was antagonistic to the fundamental principles of the Republican organization, and hoped they would withdraw the motion and amendment.

Sheriff Lee withdrew the motion.

A discussion ensued between "Jeems" and Maj. Jones, in which the Maj. expressed his determination to withdraw from the Convention, and suiting the action to the word, gathered his hat, cane and umbrella, but Jeemes relented and the Maj. remained seven minutes longer, when he gracefully retired from the Pow-wow sufficiently amused, as his countenance clearly indicated.

A Committee of one from each township were appointed a Committee on nominations.

As he appeared on the stand he was lustily cheered by the negroes. Chick Haywood, whose sonorous voice rose above the general din, insisted on his blowing his horn.

He opened his speech by a review of the history of the present political parties; he eulogised the great old Jefferson Democratic party. Said the present Conservative party was composed of the old Whigs and Know Nothings headed in this State by Wm. A. Graham. After delighting his audience with the repetition of some old worn out anecdotes too indecent to appear in print, he passed on to Horace Greeley. He first claimed that the Democratic party were now all Republicans in supporting Horace Greeley, and before he got through charged Greeley with being a Democrat in accepting their suffrages. His entire speech was characterized by just such inconsistencies, and badly expressed at that. But little enthusiasm was manifested only when he resorted to his low and indecent anecdotes.

This was the first time it was our privilege to hear Maj. Smith's campaign speech. We are of the opinion, judging from its style, that it is entirely original, if not, then the man that wrote it, is not as yet "one of the self-made men of the times," or the Major has not studied it well enough for delivery.

His reference to the acts of Col. Rogers when in Congress, charging him with the omission of more service than he could have performed in six months, when it is a well known fact that he was in his seat only a week or two, fell still born even upon all intelligent republicans present. He refered to the Railroad charges made against him by the "Sentinel," and drew forth documents to show that he made more money as president than Joe Turner did during his administration, but not one time did he refer to the charges of the "Sentinel," that he received a large compensation for procuring the lease of this Road to the Pennsylvania Central Railroad. It will be recollected that when Billy Smith was called upon by the Fraud Commission as to what he knew of money being paid for the lease of the North Carolina Road to the Pennsylvania Central, he declined to answer on the ground that his answer might criminate himself.

This is the man that appeals to the working men to come into a party that protects them and their interests when he has been charged through the public press with carrying in his pocket a large sum of money for leasing out State property, paid for by the tax payers of North Carolina, to a foreign corporation.

After the usual sing song in regard to overdrawing—a little more Ku Klux, a slight sprinkle of secesh, a few more smutty anecdotes the "dog was killed," and Maj. Smith retired amidst the applause of his colored friends.

The Chairman of the Committee on nominations, reported as follows:

For the Senate—Jas. H. Harris.

For House of Representatives—Stewart Ellison, colored, R. C. Badger, Jno. C. Gorman, R. S. Perry.

For Commissioners—R. W. Wynne, Wm. Jinks, G. M. Todd, H. C. Jones, colored, Samuel Rogers, colored.

For Register of Deed's—W. W. White.

For Treasurer—Wm. M. Brown.

For Sheriff—T. F. Lee.

For Coroner—J. R. Colclough.

For Surveyor———

Jeems H. being called for, came forward and made his usual speech (heretofore reported.)

After Jeems the other candidates came forward, spoke a piece and to the gratification of the audience cleared the stand.

The meeting adjourned without sending up those hearty cheer suggested by Tim Lee. The Convention was not prepared to do it, for the nominations are not well received.

The old Republicans complain that no consideration was shown them at all; that the "new fledged" got all the positions.

We regard this as the best day's work ever performed for the Conservatives of Wake county. The weak ticket now in the field can be easily beaten. Now go to work and do it.

REPUBLICAN MEETING AT OXFORD—A HUGE FAILURE—GREAT DISAPPOINTMENT—ABSENCE OF ENTHUSIASM—MESSRS. CARROW, YOUNG, SMITH AND POOL THE PRINCIPAL ORATORS.—This day, the 4th of July, a day conspicuously prominent in the annals of American history, was selected by the Republicans of Granville, as a fitting occasion for having a grand political jubilee at this place. Anticipating that an immense concourse of people would be present to take part in the jubilee on a day so redolent of patriotic reminiscences, they must needs dispense with their Granville orators, save only in the case of Colonel I. J. Young, and therefore they invited such shining lights of Radicalism from a distance as Marshal Carrow, Blow-your-Horn Billy Smith and Hon. John Pool, ex-Jeff. Davis elector.

It was thought that the "Memorable Fourth," together with the announcement that these distinguished Republicans were to address the people, would be sufficient to swell the audience to immense proportions. The court house it was thought would be entirely inadequate to contain the large crowd that would congregate on that occasion, so august and imposing. Arrangements were therefore made for the speaking to take place in Dr. Taylor's grove. After considerable dum beating, what might be correctly termed a small audience assembled at the point designated.

Very soon Col. S. Carrow proceeded to address the meeting in a prosy uninteresting and pointless manner and matter. He may have capacity in some other direction. We hope we would not intentionally disparage his merits but his forte is not in oratory. He is neither a lineal descendant of Demosthenes or Cicero, judging by his effort here. His speech fell still-born. We do think he stirred an emotion of zeal in the bosom of the most ardent Republican who had the misfortune to be in ear-shot of his monotonous harangue. Next came Col. I. J. Young. He spoke with some force but it was the same speech that we suppose he has spoken at various other points and having been more fully spoken on former occasions in Granville, it sounded rather much like a twice told tale. If he speaks it many more times it will become as familiar to every body as Wirts famous speech on Burr and Blennerhassett. To do Col. Young justice however, his speech is well gotten up and he delivers it very well. Indeed, practicing so much on the same composition it is not surprising that his elocutionary effort should be creditably performed.

Blow your Horn Billy was the next speaker. He seems to be arriving at points but does not make them clear to his hearers, nor does he seem to perceive them very clearly himself. We think an effort to make himself more intelligently understood would tend to befog rather than to enlighten. He tells third rate anecdotes in third rate style.

Hon. John Pool was the next speaker introduced. Some persons thought Senator Pool would awaken the lethargic feelings of the small squad of hearers who had been listening at the speakers who preceded him. He had not progressed far in his remarks ere it was evident that their hopes were doomed to disappointment. He does not, we think, suit the taste of the Granville Republicans anything like so well as Gov. Caldwell; and Jno. Ragland, Cuffee Mayo and half dozen other orators in Granville, can elicit more attention and more enthusiasm than the Governor did in his speech here in April.

While listening at Pool's remarks, we thought he must have come to Oxford to make a speech in order "to embarrass" the Republican party. There were at times more Republicans talking on outside matters, if we could judge correctly from the hum of voices, than were listening to the big gun from Elizabeth City. The efforts of some of his party friends were zealous and indefatigable, but eminently unsuccessful. We sympathized with them in their herculean undertaking and were struck with their elongated countenances when they seemed to give up their task in utter despair.

We believe Senator Pool's effort here was one of the most conspicuous failures we ever witnessed from one of whom so much had been expected. He failed to get the attention of his Republican friends generally, as we could judge, and to add to the somberness of the proceedings, the frown of Heaven in the shape of ominous clouds hovered over the scene during the delivery of his remarks.

A Mr. Long concluded the speaking. We did not hear him. Perhaps we should have said before, that when Blow-your-horn Billy arose to speak, a colored individual said several times in a loud voice, "hurrah for Rogers!"

X. Y. Z.

HURRAH FOR THE 4TH OF JULY.—A couple of "unbleached" from the country celebrated the fourth of July by getting married—the "knot" was tied by Mayor Whitaker, at the Court House—the bride and groom were tastily dressed, the bride wearing her "Dolly Varden" over a puffed Maltese biased worsted underskirt, with a straight-backed polonaise basque, fastened in front with colored welting cord, No. 3, the collar of French dimity, mouse-colored, with white groundwork, was considered elegant. She wore a pair of No. 11, patent morocco, low-quartered, high heeled, State's prison make shoes, tied with strings of imported wool twine, No. 8. The hat was worn without a veil, owing to the extreme heat, and of course showed off to greater advantage; the brim and sides of the hat were black with green and salmon colored stripes, painted in water colors, the crown being made of Mariganza Bohemian felt. Here our fashion book "give out," and the rest of the bridal costume must be imagined by those of our fair readers who are interested. The happy couple, after the ceremony, departed for a stroll. Coming upon an Ice Cream stand on the street, the following actually occurred:

HUSBAND—Darling, what will you take?

WIFE—Well, I b'leves I'll take Ice Cream.

HUSBAND—Mister, give me 5 cents worth Ice Cream—4th July don't come but once a year.

POW WOW NO. 8.—In response to the repeated ringing of the Court House bell Friday night, a few of the faithful assembled, who were accordingly enlightened upon some very important points.

We did not get in in time to hear the object of the meeting, nor have we since heard; don't believe they knew themselves.

Tim Lee on Horace Greeley was the leading attraction (?) of the evening. He expressed much surprise and mortification that the old Democratic party, which he considered a highly honorable and noble old party, (we never knew the Rads had such a high estimate of us before Greeley was a candidate,) should take up with Horace Greeley's old white hat when he had proven himself more damaging to the party than any other Northern Republican.

It is really amusing to hear the arguments used by the Rads against Greeley. Jeems Harriss, for instance, opposes him because he was an abolitionist, Tim Lee because he was so hostile to the Southern Democrats, &c., &c.

The pow-wow became too much exhausted from Tim's effort to hear Stewart Ellison, who was called out, and every man adjourned for himself.

OUR CHURCHES TO-DAY.—Divine services will be held at the following Churches to day, (Sunday.) Strangers and others in the city are earnestly and cordially invited to attend. Gentlemanly ushers will be present to conduct visitors to pews which are always free.

PARDONED.—John H. Everett was convicted at fall term, 1870, of Halifax Superior Court of receiving goods stolen from the cars of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad while in motion, and sentenced to five years imprisonment in the Penitentiary. Some time since he made application for pardon, pledging himself to leave the State in forty days. On that condition, Dr. W. J. Hawkins, Paul C. Cameron, S. S. Royster, J. B. Batchelor, Col. Geo. Little, A. M. McPheeters and Capt. A. B. Andrews, on the part of the Road, and a large number of citizens of Halifax, recommended his pardon, so also did Judge Watts and Solicitor Cox. The directors and officers of the Penitentiary certify to the good conduct of Everett since his incarceration. On this petition, Gov. Caldwell has issued a pardon, and Everett left on Thursday last to make his arrangements to leave the State. Another judgment is pending against him, which will force him to comply with his pledge.

TEMPERANCE.—The State Temperance Convention will meet at the Common's Hall, in this city on Tuesday, the 6th day of August, at 10 o'clock. The hall will be beautifully decorated with evergreen wreaths and flags. The citizens, cornet bands has been engaged for the occasion. The gallery will be open to visitors. Distinguished speakers will be present to address the Convention. Delegates to the Convention will be passed over the various railroads for one fare.

Let every one attend and hear the great speeches which will be made on the occasion.

RELIGIOUS—A BAPTIST CHURCH IN ROME.—We are requested by Dr. T. H. Pritchard, Pastor of the Raleigh Baptist Church, to state that he will preach today at 11 A. M., a sermon "on the Religious condition of Italy," and will take up a collection to aid in building a Baptist Church in Rome. All who are friendly to the civil and religious liberty of Italy, are invited to attend and to contribute to this object.

LEFT THE CITY.—Judge Fowle and family, W. A. Ramsey and lady, and Mr. Stillman left a day or two since for Beaufort—Gen. Hoke and family, Mr. Creech's family and several others of our city are at Kittrell's. The season is fast approaching when all of our citizens who are so situated that they can leave town will do so, and those who can not, will move in the back part of the house and play country.

By a law of the State of New York no shareholder in the Central Railroad can become an officer in the Erie road.

In the Stokes case, John Moore testified that he saw Fisk go in the Grand Central Hotel January 6th; afterwards saw the boy Redmond come out and said Fisk was shot. The witness went in and caught the Colonel under the arms. No one was present but two of them. He was just going to ask, "Are you hurt?" when Fisk said, "He was too quick for me this time." When the witness came out Fisk's colored driver asked him what had happened, and telling him, the colored man said, "I wonder the old man did not pull on him, for he was fixed," and afterwards said, "I carry two myself for some time."

GREAT MASS MEETING AND BARBECUE AT WELDON.

The Great Mass Meeting will take place at Weldon, N. C., on Friday, July 12th, instead of Saturday the 13th, as heretofore announced.

A grand time is anticipated. Senators Schurz, Trumbull, and Blair, Messrs. Doolittle, and Thurman, Governor Walker and Col. J. W. Hinton, of Virginia, General J. B. Gordon, of Georgia, and Gov. Vance and Senator Ransom and other distinguished speakers are expected to address the people.

Preparations have been made for a large crowd, and there will also be music to enliven the occasion. Arrangements will be made for special trains from Raleigh, Wilmington, Petersburg and Portsmouth at reduced fare, and the fire companies of these cities will be invited to attend.

GREAT MASS MEETING IN RALEIGH.

We are requested to state that there will be a grand mass meeting in Raleigh, on Tuesday, July the 16th, of Conservatives, Democrats and Liberal Republicans, which will be addressed by distinguished speakers from all parts of the country.

Hon. Carl Schurz, Senator Trumbull, Gen. Francis P. Blair, Gov. Walker, of Virginia, and other eminent orators have been invited, and are expected to be present.

It is desired to make this affair one of the most imposing demonstrations that has ever been held in North Carolina.

KEEP THEM ON THE DEFENSIVE.

The Radicals in North Carolina know they have violated every trust and proved false to every obligation.

The Radicals know they have committed such crimes in this State that the people have at last become aroused to the dangers which beset them, and are determined to throw off the political chains with which they have been bound.

The Radicals know they have, without stint, squandered the public funds and plunged the State into a new debt of fifteen millions of dollars, without a prospect of obtaining any equivalent whatever.

The Radicals know that their administration of the State Government has been characterized by criminal extravagances and a reckless disregard of right, and has signalized the overthrow of the dearest and most sacred principles guaranteed by the fundamental law of the land.

They come before the people, burdened with the weight of their accumulated iniquities and bending under the curses and imprecations of an outraged and indignant public.

In order to shield themselves from merited odium—in order to throw dust in the eyes of the people, and to divert attention from their manifold political sins, they are making a desperate attempt, by unblushing falsehood and malicious slanders, to assail the characters of our candidates, to impeach their honor and to blacken their good names.

The Radical papers teem with oft refuted slanders and stereotyped vituperation, for no other purpose than to seek to throw us on the defensive, and thus they attempt to parry the blows that are falling thick and fast all over the State upon their corrupt, infamous and reckless party

While we nail these falsehoods to the wall, let us not lose sight for a moment of the vantage ground whereon we stand.

We must not fail, on every occasion and at every point, to hold up to view the rascality, swindling, tyranny, corruption and ruin of Radicalism in North Carolina.

We have them on the defensive. Let us keep them there. Let no side issues, no personal abuse, no lying circulars, no false and libelous calumnies, divert us from our purpose of holding the Radical party up before the gaze of the people of the State as a vile, loathsome, treacherous, reckless, lawless, dangerous organization, stained with unnumbered crimes—black with ineffable ignominy—cruel, relentless, insensate, the embodiment of every political evil that ever cursed any nation.

The record of Radicalism is before the country. By that record will it be judged. By that record will it be condemned.

Guilty—GUILTY—GUILTY—will be the verdict by its jurors—the voters of North Carolina—on the 1st day of August.

A young man named Lysander Rose, of Henrico county, Va., was shot and SOUTHERN EDITORIAL EXCURSIONISTS.

We have published several letters from Mr. Stone, of the RALEIGH DAILY NEWS, who is traveling with the Southern Editorial Excursion party, and from his letters, our readers can form some idea of the whole-souled and generous reception accorded to our brethren of the Southern press by the people of the North, without distinction of party politics.

In the last number of Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, we find a pictorial illustration of the grand editorial ball and reception at Watertown, New York. The representation is very beautiful and interesting. The hall is festooned with flowers in every conceivable form; the letters "THE NORTH TO THE SOUTH," in large Capitals, are formed out of flowers, with two pens, one under the word North, and the other under South, pointing towards each other; while below, the words "WELCOME TO THE PRESS," are displayed over several beautiful flags and other adornments and devices, such as wreaths, crosses, &c.

In the centre of the room is an ornamental structure of flowers, like the frame of a cottage, extending to the ceiling, with numerous posts and a triangular roof, all enwreathed with festoons, with a magnificent boquet surrounding the top. The hall is filled with elegantly dressed belles and beaux, enjoying themselves in a manner in keeping with the gay festivities usual on such occasions.

Mr. Stone has already given an account to the readers of the NEWS of the reception and entertainment of Southern Editors, by the people of Canandaigua, New York. The following article on the subject, taken from the Messenger of that town, will be found interesting:

SOUTHERN EDITORIAL EXCURSIONISTS—These gentlemen visited our village on Thursday last. An account of their reception, and their subsequent trip up our beautiful lake, is given in another column.

Their welcome at Canandaigua, was warm, heart-felt and spontaneous, and it was the true indication of the sentiments of our community. Nor could it well be otherwise, for a more genial, whole-souled, and intelligent body of men, it has not been our happy fortune to see. The majority of them are young men, unhampered by the past, whose path leads forward and onward, and whose mission to guide the sentiment of the South is one inconceivably grand.

The divine, the advocate and the orator speak to the comparatively few within hearing of their voice, but the editor, through the press, and with his silent pen, reaches and influences his thousands and tens of thousands. From this visit of Southern gentlemen, we look forward to a brighter era, and a more complete obliteration of old and sectional prejudices. They will tell their people that in our midst they received a generous hospitality—a hospitality as cordial and as free as exists in their own sunny South. That they found us men like unto themselves, ready to forget and to forgive, and only recalling the past to remember the names and the fame of our heroes, be they living or gone to the halls of death—

"Love and tears for the blue,
Tears and love for the gray."

We repeat, that we believe that this visit of the Southerners will be productive of good. The people of the North and South are not antagonistic. And the day is not far distant, when with a the overthrow of that heinous policy that would estrange them, they will come into closer communion than ever before, and be in truth brothers.

CONVINCED AGAINST ITS WILL.

We have proved to the satisfaction of every reasonable, unprejudiced man, that Governor Caldwell has more power under the present militia laws of North Carolina than any of his predecessors had before the war

He has full power under the present State Constitution and law, to call out, organize and equip the militia of the State. Their pay is now provided for under Act of the Legislature of March 1870, and is precisely as it was provided in the old Revised Code, chapter 70.

The Democratic Legislature has not repealed the Militia law in any of these respects.

Gov. Caldwell devotes three quarters of an hour in his public speeches to show that he has no power to call out and pay the militia!

This is utterly untrue. The Governor ought to be ashamed of himself. The Raleigh Era essays a puerile reply to our editorial on this subject, but the Era is evidently convinced against its own will. It cannot meet our facts and arguments.

PRACTICE vs. PREACHING.

Maj. W. A. Smith the Radical nominee for Congress in this District, proclaims himself the peculiar friend of the working man. But we should judge men rather by their acts than their words.

Col. Sion H. Rogers, the Democratic candidate for Congress, appointed the son of a mechanic, Mr. J. B. Gayle, to West Point.

This simple act on the part of Col. Rogers is worth ten thousand of Maj. Smith's empty promises.

It has been falsely charged by the Radicals that the Democratic party is opposed to promoting the interests of the working men of the State.

This is low demagoguism and falsehood, and is intended to array the honest, hard-fisted, hard working man against the only party whose principles would promote the interests of all alike—without regard to class or profession.

"OLD JOHN BROWN'S SOUL MARCHING ON."

A frightful charge is brought against Mr. Greeley by The Carolina Era newspaper, printed in Raleigh, N. C. It requires in this case a good deal of moral courage to adhere to our rule of printing both sides; for what do you think Mr. Greeley did in the days that are past? Give ear to The Era!

HORACE GREELEY—OLD JOHN BROWN.—Horace Greeley is the author of "Old John Brown's Soul is marching On."

Here will be news for the admirers of this inspiring lyric! It must have been obtained by a special spiritual dispatch from old John Brown himself.—N. Y. Tribune.

The North Carolina Radicals are constantly alluding to Horace Greeley as being the author of the famous song on old John Brown.

Not only the Era, but other Radical politicians have attributed the authorship to Mr. Greeley.

A prominent Republican from Lincoln County, who was in Raleigh last week, declared he intended to commit the words of the song to memory, that he might sing them to his Democratic brethren during the Presidential campaign.

Our correspondent from Catawba, in to-day's NEWS, says that Col. O. H. Dockery, in his speech in that County, closed by singing with great effect, "Old John Brown's Soul is marching on"—for the special edification of his Democratic hearers who expected to support Greeley for President.

The best part of the joke is, Mr. Greeley had no more to do with writing that song than Mr. Logan Harris of the Era, or Col. Dockery, the Radical candidate for Congress.

BOLTING REPUBLICANS.

We publish elsewhere, a sensible letter from Hon. John L. Rice, a prominent Republican of Massachusetts, who withdraws as a member of the Republican Committee of Massachusetts, and comes out against Grant.

After the 9th of July, we shall expect to see Republicans all over the country leaving the sinking ship of Radicalism ere it sinks to rise no more.

We alluded Saturday to the fact that that Gen. Henry, Maj. Rollins and Mr. Roberts, three leading Republicans of Western North Carolina, were out for Greeley. We have information that several other prominent Radicals will take the same position in a few days.

Coal has been found near Brazil, Ind., more free from sulphur than charcoal, and better for smelting iron ore and manufacturing pig metal, bar iron or steel. It leaves behind a white or gray floculent ash, and subjected to the strongest draughts it gives no clinker, hence it is an admirable coal for locomotives. It contains from 57 to 62 per cent. of fixed carbon; anthricite usually has about 80 per cent.

The committee of the New York Chamber of Commerce for the relief of sufferers reports having received $625,189 27 from home, and $405,252,86 from foreign, contributors of which $845,701.65 was disbursed, the balance, $199,049.83, being paid to the Chicago Relief and Aid Society.

The Gold Mountain district, Nevada, is twelve miles long and six miles wide, and contains one hundred and sixty mining locations. The ore is found in veins varying from eight inches to ten feet, which assays $100 in gold, and as high as $2,289 in silver per ton.

It is estimated that the Columbus (Ga) manufactories will consume this season 6,000 bales of cotton, worth, at 20 cents per pound, or $100 per bale, $600,000 in raw, and more than $1,200,000 in the manufactured, state.

Six skeletons were dug up recently at Savannah by a party of workmen engaged in clearing out a sewer. They are supposed to be the remains of some of Sherman's soldiers, who died in the vicinity of small-pox during the Federal occupation of that city.

Mr. James Kelly, of Wilkinsburg, Pa., has given the Alleghany County Agricultural Society land valued at a quarter of a million of dollars, in Wilkinsburg, for the purpose of erecting a home for poor boys where they may learn trades.

The Steamship Lapwing, running between Liverpool and Rotterdam, collided with an unknown vessel off the Isle of Wight, on the night of the 3rd, and it is thought twenty one persons perished.

There is a girl in Minnesota, only eighteen years of age, who by herself and two boys runs a farm of over two hundred acres. She put $500 in a St. Paul bank last year.

Bishop Becker, of Wilmington, Del., starts for Europe this week for a two months' tour. He was presented with a purse of $1,000 by the members of his church.

The Empress of Germany proposes the erection in Berlin of dwelling houses for workmen, on the plan of those erected for workmen in London.

During a storm in Richmond on Wednesday, a house was struck by lightning. No one was hurt.

Mr. William J. Harwood, of Richmond, Va., died suddenly on Thursday evening last.

STATE MATTERS.

☞ Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this department specially full.

CROPS in Halifax county are looking well.

THERE are nine prisoners in Buncombe county jail.

COL. W. H. ROWLAND, of Nash county, is recovering.

THE erection of a hotel at Battleboro will commence in a few days.

MIKE LIPMAN'S circus will not visit Weldon for some time.

PEARS have made their appearance in the Reidsville market.

A DERANGED negro was arrested in Weldon on Wednesday last.

THE United States flag now floats over the Town Hall at Weldon.

MRS. ELIZA CROWLEY died recently at Enfield, Halifax county, in the 71st year of her age.

It is thought that Gen. D. H. Hill, of the "Southern Home" and "Despatch," has the typhoid fever.

SECRETARY BOUTWELL will visit this State on the 15th, to make Republican speeches at Charlotte and Morganton.

MOST of our State exchanges failed to reach us on Friday night, which must account for all shortcomings in this column.

ALBERT MCINTOSH and John Higgins, confined in jail at Asheville on the charge of rape, in Yancey county, have been acquitted.

A Member of the Massachusetts Republican State Committee Bolts.

George S. Merrill, Secretary of the Republican State Committee of Massachusetts:

DEAR SIR: My connection with the Republican State Committee ceases from this date. I find I can no longer keep step without doing violence to my convictions, which would be neither wise nor honest. The traditions and standards of the party seem to have largely passed into the hands of its camp followers. There is management, not leadership; more thrift and less conscience. Offices, once stewardships, have become spoils. With a past that was all glory, and a future that was all hope, the party has weakly abandoned its mission. The country cries out for reform; the President responds in feeble and uncertain voice, while his chosen friends, still secure in his favor, bellow their dissent and conquer. Again, the animus of the party four years ago was fitly shadowed in the words of its candidate, "Let us have peace. The true significance of that canvass and its result was its grand invocation of the spirit of peace. Still the sword is not yet a ploughshare. And, as if to put off for all time that much needed change, the party now goes back to the past for the one other notable utterance of its candidate, and grimly resolves to fight it out on the chosen line of proscription and hate. In the name of liberty it decrees the maintenance of alien and corrupt State governments at the South. It the people of those States will not kiss the rod that smites them, they are human, not rebellious; if they were to do this, they would be not loyal. Yet the Republican party base demands it. Quite distinct from the foregoing, but equally objectionable, is the action of the party in renominating General Grant. Save in very rare and exceptional cases, I do not believe the President of all the people should become the candidate of a party. His impaired usefulness, the diminution of public confidence, and a certain loss of dignity, all sure to follow, are always serious objections to this course, while in the present instance they ought to be decisive against it. With so many grounds of dissent, I should prove but a reluctant supporter of the Philadelphia ticket, though it stands for much that I approve. In all this I only differ from a very large number of my constituents in the conclusion at which I have arrived. While they are anxiously waiting and watching for something better in politics, I deem it wiser to cut loose from my present affiliations and help to mould the chaos of good intentions everywhere at hand into that shape and symmetry which may fitly take the name of reform.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JOHN L. RICE.

BURKE COUNTY, N. C.,
July 3rd, 1872.

Mr. Editor:—We challenge the State to beat it. E. P. Moore took charge of the Sheriffs office on the 1st of October, 1871, and on Monday last July 1st) he settled in full with the County Commissioners. He was charged on the tax list with $23,956 90, and has accounted for $24,063.32, over paid $106.42. In nine months he has collected and paid over three times the largest tax ever collected in our county. This is proof positive as to what can be done by an honest and efficient officer. So much for Conservatism. On the other hand, J. T. Patterson, the present Republican candidate for the Legislature, was the Sheriff two years ago, and up to this time has failed to settle up with the Commissioners, and it will be a question of time if he ever settles, and still he is before the people asking for office.—We say long may E. P. Moore be Sheriff of our county.

Dockery in Catawba.

"Be thou a spirit of health, or goblin damn'd,

"The man that assails or imputes any wrong against my private character, without satisfactory proof, must die."—Dockery.

"I allow no man to dictate to me what sort of speech to make, and how I shall make it."—Dockery.

"I have been a member of the United States Congress, and have used every means within my power to relieve the oppressed condition of my people.

"I made a speech," (which Andy Ramsour, the unhappy victim of Ku-Kluxism and quondam deputy United States Marshal, under the administration of that prodigious jurist, (?) Darius Starbuck, will distribute without money and without price) in that Congress."—See Dockery on Education.

"I was opposed to the Holden Kirk war upon the liberties of my people, and at a time too, when it cost something to take such a stand."—Dockery.

How are you now, "my son Oliver?"
POL.—"What do you read, my Lord?"
HAM.—"Words, words, words."

"The glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future."—Radical Platform.

That Record! O, ye gods! Poor, bleeding, bankrupted, ruined, sincursed North Carolina, listen at this mockery! Think of John Kerr, Josiah Turner, Jr., and a host of other good men in chains! Think of the habeas corpus—the great writ of right—that greatest palladium of our liberties spurned, yes, malignantly spit upon by the Governor of the State! Think of those Tennessee fiends and cut throats brought into North Carolina to oppress, hang and murder your best citizens! Think of the infamous hell-hound Bergin, hanging poor Murray by the neck!

"The glorious record of the past," indeed! Shame on you, "my son, Oliver," for such effrontery and mockery—a record, black and damnable enough to make hell itself blush—worthy of the worst eminence among fiends.

Dockery, the man who was opposed to Holden when it cost something to oppose him, now two years afterwards, is the nominee of a party whose State Convention openly approved of Holden's past course. As the nominee of that party Dockery must stand on that black and infamous record.

Alas! "son Oliver," you must inevitably sink under the weight of such a burden; you are travelling up hill in Catawba, her good, honest citizens can offer you no help. They admire your manliness in opposing Holden, but deplore that your faith was so weak; they like you for your opposition to the Revenue system, but when they see the Revenue officers smiling on you, in the midst of your bitterest denunciation of the system, they hesitate; they tremble. They fear that you 'will go back' on them. "That one may smile, and smile, and be a villain!" It is true, that your conduct before the Reconstruction Committee was manly, but alas! poor erring human nature! that proud record has been ruined. Your party's endorsement of "the glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge," gives contradicts every act of your life, and sounds the death knell to Oliver H. Dockery in this Congressional District. The colored people say they are afraid of you, that in 1866 at Carthage, you made a speech in which you said: "I will never ask the negro to vote for me, I am no favorite of his. I have struck him too many hard licks; and if the negro ever has the right to vote in North Carolina, I will leave the State in twenty four hours."

They say further that you are most too good a "dimicrat" to be made a Radical; that you were opposed to the Ku Klux laws; that you believed they were passed to make party capital; that you didn't talk enough about "Mars Tod" and tell them whether it was true or not, what Col. McCorkle said about Mars Tod getting the "South Mountain boys" to volunteer in the "secesh war" and afterward when it was charged on him by Col. Avery, he excused himself by saying "he wanted all the Democrats and secessionists killed in the war." If Mars Tod said and did this, and any of those boys were killed, would it be murder or justifiable homicide? Mars Tod did do and say just what is charged, and at heart, he is no better than a murderer. It is horrible to think that the man who is now the Governor of the State and a candidate for re election, ever conceived such a damnable sentiment. We will say here, that there may be no disappointment, that the gallant Colonel will get but few votes outside of the family, this embraces only the revenue department, notwithstanding his opposition to their interests. The Colonel made a fine impression in Catawba, in fact, too fine to be seen. He spoke in high terms of his honorable opponent, Mr. Ashe, but forgot to give him notice of his appointments. However, we can assure Mr. Ashe that he was met at the threshhold and that the Colonel is perfectly welcome to every vote he made in Catawba.

His first speech was at Hickory Tavern; here he was met by Dr. Ellis, our candidate for the Senate, and though the Doctor is not accomplished orator, his extensive and accurate knowledge of political affairs, enabled him to handle the Colonel in a manner he little expected. He threw hot shot with so much accuracy, that the Colonel left the field—he vamosed to his hotel, leaving the Doctor alone in his glory. The Doctor may justly feel proud of his victory—he fought the lion of the Radical party. His speech at Newton evidently indicated that Dockery was writhing under the sting of defeat. Hence, this direful warning: "The man who assails or imputes any wrong against my private character, without satisfactory proof, must die." (Of course his audience was filled with alarm and apprehension!) The dauntless champion launched out with a vehement exordium, swallowing up friend and foe—abusing Democrats, Republicans, Radicals, Revenue officers, Ku Klux, Union Leagues, and everything and everybody except Oliver H. Dockery. Said the Sentinel office had overdrawn $3,000; and whilst making this charge he played the demagogue to consummation; he labored this point zealously, making prominent his idea: That this single, isolated transaction, (and it was the only one in the fertility of his imagination and ingenuity he could point to, and did not charge corruption in that,) justified the wholesale stealing and corruption of the Radical party—justified the bribery of Laffin, Harris, Judge Tourgee and other prominent Radicals—justified the stealing of NINE MILLIONS IN BONDS!!—justified a public debt of TWENTY MILLION DOLLARS!!!—justified a tax of FIFTY DOLLARS ON THE THOUSAND!!! Proved to his own satisfaction from the report of the Shipp Fraud Commission that Geo. W. Swepson was a Democrat, and that he alone was responsible for all the stealing and corruption of the Radical party. Here the demagogue played the "bob-tail, cross roads politician" to perfection, but he got "the wind knocked out of his sails" sooner than he expected. Said he would not charge Judge Merrimon with corrupt motives as Swepson's lawyer, because he did not believe it, but he did think the Democrats ought not to throw stones at the convicted rogues, rascals and swindlers in the Radical party, when there was even a faint suspicion against the Democratic candidate for Governor; and he might well have added, "which exists only in the imagination of depraved politicians, demagogues and slanderers." Take the Colonel's whole speech, and you have a curious production, showing a wonderful elasticity of mind and matter—a fearful combination of wind and thunder—forcibly suggesting that oft quoted couplet:

"Alas! what a tangled web we weave,
When once we practice to deceive."

After occupying nearly two hours he closed; his peroration was grand, gloomy and fearfully ridiculous; his electrified audience was spell-bound; the unbidden tear trickling down the ebony faces of a few 'Fourteenth Amendments," as the valiant Col. with the melody a brass horn, sang "Old John Brown's Soul is marching on," which added a terrible solemnity to the scene. As the curtain lowers, a gaunt, spectral hand writing is seen on the wall:

"TO ARMS; TO ARMS!

The undersigned is disirous of organizing a volunteer company to go forth immediatly in defence of our rights. We must fight or yield! True men never will surrender their dearest rights, and, as freemen, let us rush forth knowing dare mantain them. * * * * *

May 20th, 1861. O. H. DOCKERY."

The curtain drops; the scene beggars description; I shall not attempt it, Col. McCorkle arose to reply, and such excoriation as he gave Dockery, was fearful. Which all the fire of youthful ardor, he spoke for one hour, I will not do his speech or the distinguished gentleman, the injustice to attempt even an outline. It abounded with the most chaste and beautiful figures, and was delivered with an unusual zeal and animation. One more Dockery in our midst, and the banner county of Democracy in North Carolina will add two hundred to her last vote—rolling up a majority of TWELVE HUNDRED FOR MERIMON!

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of tuousands of Dollars in Life Premenms are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

BE KIND TO EACH OTHER.

Be kind to each other,
The night's coming on
When friend and when brother
Alike may be gone:
Then 'midst our dejection,
How sweet to have earn'd
The blest recollection
Of kindness return'd.

When day hath departed,
And memory keeps
Her watch, broken-hearted,
Where all she loves sleeps;
Let falsehood assail not,
Nor envy disprove;
Let trifles prevail not
Against those ye love!

Nor change with to-morrow,
Should fortune take wing;
But deeper the sorrow,
The closer still cling!
O, be kind to each other,
The night's coming on
When friend and when brother
Alike may be gone!

WATSON'S & CLARK'S
HIGH GRADE
Super-Phosphate of Lime.
Composed entirely of the Charleston Rock Phosphate, Sulphuric Acid and Ammonia. Warranted to analyse seven per cent. Soluble Phosphoric Acid and one per cent. of Ammonia.
We are prepared to offer this reliable and superior Super-phosphate—after a test of more than five years in the cotton growing States of South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, where its record is second to no other manufactured—not excepting Peruvian Guano and Pure Ground Bone, having a better record for cotton than those to Planters and Dealers—in any quantity at any railroad depot in the State, or at the factory, upon satisfactory terms.
Price per ton, delivered at any station on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad east of Henderson, or on the Wilmington and Weldon road north of Rocky Mount, for cash.
Put up in bags—very stout—for immediate use—or in good barrels—which we recommend as better, owing to the high grade of the article as ordered. Circulars and testimonials furnished upon application. All orders and communications addressed to
